WASHINGTON

VOL. XV. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 3, 1897. No. 44.

COL. MILTON M. HOLLAND.

Col. Milton M. Holland, who is backed so strongly for Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia, is no doubt one of the best known men in the United States. He has served his country as a soldier and was given a medal of honor for bravery. He is a thorough race man and one among the few men who advocated the claim of Major McKinley in this city at the beginning of the canvass for delegate to the St. Louis Convention.

HON. FRANK M. PALMER.

THEY SAY.

The colored editor will be in it soon.

The Recorder of the Land Office is gone.

One plum the Afro-American thought he would receive.

It is the great man who wins.

Dr. George Wellington Bryant may have made a mistake.

Dr. Bryant's defalcation is no argument against the colored man holding office.

The city government was responsible for his appointment.

It is an argument against the appointment of strange negroes who are not wanted at their own homes.

Whenever a negro or a white man leaves his own home and seeks an office in some other city or State, it is the best argument in the world that he is no good at his own home.

It is a lesson for the President to consider.

Importation of men from other States and thrust them upon the people in whose cities or States they do not belong is a dangerous thing.

The white republicans of Maryland were carried away with Bryant's bluff.

He was opposed by the best colored politicians in the State.

This city is full of refugees from other States.

They are no good at home and a very little good here.

Home rule should be the policy of all parties.

It is the knave who fails to do his duty.

There will be a new Recorder of Deeds in a few days.

A clean sweep in the office will follow.

THE BEE knows what it is talking about.

Harry L. West created a sensation when his name was presented.

The gold democrats will be recognized.

What will become of the boys in black?

If the white republicans in the District take all the offices, what will become of the Afro-Americans?

Ex-Senator B. K. Bruce has seen Major McKinley only once and that was to pay his respects to him.

He is not a candidate for the Recorder's office.

Mr. Cheatham is a candidate for Register of the Treasury.

Does Mr. Cheatham remember when promised to vote for Major McKinley for Speaker?

Chickens will come home to roost.

Hon. John P. Green is in the same boat.

It is a bad policy to play a double game.

It is about time that a prosecuting attorney is appointed in one of the District courts.

When Judge Kimball retires, Bailiff Cole will also retire.

He ought to have been gone long ago.

A Colored Judge of the Police Court is an absolute necessity.

The democratic party is getting together.

The present incumbent of the Recorder's office has only a few days to settle up his accounts.

He will probably go at the end of this quarter.

Our District offices should be controlled by the District people.

If the people had the elective franchise in this town things would be better.

It is better to be the son of a blacksmith than the nursed dude of a millionaire.

We often live to see right triumph.

A corrupt judge often meets misfortune.

Up to date there are 3599 applicants for the Recorder of Deeds.

COLORED REPUBLICANS IN MARYLAND.

[From the Washington Post.]

The Baltimore Herald states an undeniable fact when it asserts that "the summary removal of Dr. G. Wellington Bryant from his position as District Superintendent of Street Cleaning for irregularities in his accounts with the city and for fraudulent practices in his dealings with subordinates, coming so soon after the disclosures as to Waring's management of the Lexington Bank finances, is not calculated to advance the claims of colored men to installation in places of responsibility."

That is an entirely safe proposition. We cannot imagine any colored man of so little intelligence or discretion as to dissent from it. Did anybody ever hear of a white man who pointed to a list of white defaulters and white perpetrators of frauds as proof of the special fitness of his race for places of responsibility? We suspect, however, that the Herald means something quite different from what it says. Its real intent, is, no doubt, that Bryant's irregularities and fraudulent practices, following on the heels of the Waring affair, will be held out as a reason for refusing to appoint colored men to office in Baltimore, and in Maryland generally.

Our esteemed contemporary takes the right position on the recent defalcation in the accounts of Dr. Bryant, of Baltimore, Md., only a superintendent or foreman of a gang of men. This position was given in recognition, by the republicans, of the State for the voting strength of the colored republican vote in the State. A greater insult could not have been offered a class of citizens and no one but cowards would have tamely submitted to it.

In the first place Dr. Bryant should not have been appointed to the position over the heads of bona fide citizens of the city and State of Maryland. He has been a floating politician ever since he left the A. M. E. Church. He is a good speaker, no one will deny and he could have made himself a useful citizen.

The colored republicans of Maryland are not responsible for the appointment of Dr. Bryant. Indeed, every politician in the city of Baltimore, protested against his appointment as a dangerous precedent to establish over old and well tried republicans.

You may take the history of the colored politicians in the State and you will not find one who has ever disgraced himself or the office to which he has been appointed.

The white republicans of Maryland over the protest and consideration of old and tried colored republicans appointed Dr. Bryant.

Not since the organization of the colored republican party of the State can you point to one disgraceful act a bona fide citizen of color has perpetrated. E. J. Waring was an interloper from Ohio. Bryant was from everywhere until he settled in Baltimore, Md., presumably to represent a so-called civil rights council which only existed on paper. If the republican or democratic party continue in thrusting non-residents upon the people or men whose records will not stand the rays of the calcium light at home, so long will corrupt men be in control of governments and offices and the people will continue to be disgraced. The Baltimore Herald would have one to believe that the defalcations of Messrs. Waring and Bryant are reflections upon the colored race and menaces the non appointment of colored men to office.

By holy St. Paul how many millions of white defaulters are now serving terms in the penitentiaries? How many thousands have committed suicide? If the "Herald's" argument is good the white race would have been blotted out of existence long ago.

The "Post" and the BEE are more charitable than the "Herald." We will not assume that the wrongs of one white man is a blot upon the entire white race.

Ever since the Republican victory in Maryland the white party leaders have been nursing some kind of excuse to side track the colored party workers.

The bona fide colored Republicans of Maryland are honest and upright citizens. Among some of the many who will do honor to any position to which they may be appointed are Lawyer Harry C. Cumming, Capt. I. D. Oliver, Ash B. Hawkins, M. Gibson, Geo. M. Matthews, J. W. Adams, Hiram Waddy, Rev. W. M. Alexander, I. J. Murphy, Editor of the Afro-American, a high-toned and educated gentleman, and many hundreds of other men in the state who can fill any position to which they may be appointed.

The action of Dr. Bryant is an argument against the appointment of non-residents to positions. Men who are known in the community in which they live are better known to the people than interlopers.

The Baltimore "Herald" ought to be just and judge the colored man as it would its own race. There are thieves among colored men, it is not denied. But you will find the high-toned and scientific thief among the Caucasians.

The position that Dr. Bryant held, over which so much talk has been made, is nothing more than superintendent of a gang of colored laborers who sweep the streets. Similar to one of our gangs on the Avenue or in South Washington in the city.

SENATOR BRUCE NAILS A LIE.

One of our city papers published a sensational story the other day which was telegraphed from here to the effect that the President had decided not to reappoint to office any person who had held office under a former administration, and that he had imported this information to Senator B. K. Bruce. Mr. Bruce immediately published a card in which he used the following clean cut language: "The statement is absolutely false from beginning to end, and does injustice to both the President and myself. I have not seen the President but once since the 4th of March, and then merely to pay my respects. I have had no conversation with him in regard to the Recorder's office or any other office."

The great mastiff has only to wag his tail to put a whole gang of curs to flight.

OUR NEW PUBLIC PRINTER.

Hon. Frank W. Palmer, of Chicago, Ill., formerly Public Printer under ex-President Harrison has been, as THE BEE predicted two weeks ago, nominated by President McKinley to succeed Hon. Thomas E. Benedict. Mr. Palmer is one of the best known public men in the United States, and one of the best friends the colored printers have ever had. No man has been more friendly disposed towards colored printers than Mr. Palmer, and no man has appointed more of them to positions under him than he did when he had charge of that office. THE BEE has not, up to date, been mistaken in its predictions of appointments that have been made by President McKinley. We congratulate Mr. Palmer on his success in being appointed Public Printer and hope, which THE BEE believes he will, that he will manifest the same liberal spirit toward the colored race as he did on former occasions.

The colored compositors are highly elated over the appointment of Hon. F. W. Palmer as Public Printer.

In our next issue will be published the names of all Negro Democrats in the Executive Departments and the Government Printing Office who exerted such successful energy and zeal in having all the Negro Republicans discharged.

THE BEE congratulate Public Printer Palmer.

THE BEE predicted his nomination two weeks ago.

Senator Cullom always wins when he goes for a man of his choice.

The Ohio contingent is in a great muddle.

The Civil Service barrier at the Government Printing Office will be knocked out.

It is quite likely that Public Printer Palmer will appoint a colored foreman of printing.

Justice Bradley informed District Attorney Davis when he cited those rulings of Judge Cole in the Chase libel suit that his (Cole's) ruling had no standing in his court.

Public Printer Palmer has the congratulations of THE BEE.

Secretary Porter is a diplomat and an adept in his line of business.

President McKinley is giving entire satisfaction thus far, and the colored brother will be cared for.

If the gold democrats are to be recognized—and they should be—District Attorney Henry E. Davis should be continued in office. He is a brilliant young lawyer.

It is rumored that Senator Bruce will retire from the Board of Trustees of Howard University after the next semi-annual meeting in June.

MR. BUTTERWORTH APPOINTED.

Hon. Benjamin Butterworth has been appointed Commissioner of Patents. He is one of the best known lawyers in this country and a man who is competent to fill any position in the gift of the President.

COMMISSIONER ROSS.

No better democrat can be found in the District of Columbia than Mr. Ross. He is acceptable to all classes of people, irrespective of politics, religion, color or condition.

We believe that Mr. Ross will be reappointed by President McKinley, because he would be the best man for the people of all classes. 250,000 people will rejoice at Mr. Ross' appointment.

OUR COMMISSIONERS.

It is rumored that Commissioners Ross and Truesdell may be reappointed District Commissioners. Col. Truesdell, as the BEE said a few weeks ago, had certainly been a friend to the colored people. He has been misjudged, and a greatly abused man.

The reappointment of both Commissioners will certainly be satisfactory to the people, not reflecting in the least on any of the other candidates for the office.

EDITOR CONN ACQUITTED.

Editor Conn, formerly the manager of the Washington Times, who was charged with having libeled Commissioner Truesdell, was acquitted in the criminal court last Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Conn was represented by Messrs. Kallston, Siddons and Bradley. Mr. Henry E. Davis represented the government. The case was a hot contested one so far as the law was concerned. Mr. Davis cited the rulings of Judge Cole in the Chase-Taylor libel case, to sustain his position. Judge Bradley gave him to understand that he took no stock in Judge Cole's decisions and rulings in that case. Judge Bradley ably expounded the law and covered every point that was made by both sides.

Editor Conn received many congratulations when Judge Bradley dismissed it.

ROScoe CONKLING BRUCE.

Among the special distinctions that can come to college boys, if indeed college sentiment does not make it the highest, is being a member of the Board of Editors of the college paper. It being so difficult of attaining, only the leading students of an institution aspire to it. At the head of the editorial column of the "Exonian" of March 24, 1897, occurs the following: "We are pleased to announce the election of Roscoe Conkling Bruce, '98, to the board of editors."

We note this fact in reference to our young fellow townsman with especial pride. It rarely happens that so distinguished an honor falls to anyone in the first six months of his attendance, but we believe it is but a well-earned recognition of young Bruce's worth and ability. Honors have fallen thick and fast upon him during his short residence at Exeter. He has been elected by the Golden Branch Literary of the Academy to respond to the toast "The Faculty," at their annual dinner, this being the post of honor; and his class, the "upper middle," have selected him to respond to the same toast at their annual dinner.

We hope for him continued success, and that the abundant promise of a bright future may be fully realized.

ON THE SIDE

Fred.—Some men smoke because they think it is manly, but it is indeed a very bad habit. No gentleman will smoke or use tobacco in the presence of ladies.

Some people claim that a man's true character is formed to a great extent by the ladies he associates with before he becomes a complete man of the world. If such is the case, we girls cannot be too careful in our delicate task of making men gentle.

Some men will appreciate the interest taken in their welfare by the ladies, because they have never had the smiles and caresses of a dear mother and loving sisters, while others will abuse the confidence and care of a woman and say a woman's advice is not worth considering.

Alice.—Let your walks be all sunshine. Life is not worth living for, when there is always a confusion.

The question has been asked, will a person endure misery, when there is a remedy of relief, or is there any excuse for a woman standing the abuse of a man, when there are courts to remedy it?

Essie.—I did not admire your conduct at the fair. Girls should rival boys in all that is good, refined and enobling.

B. C.—You should not meet your lover on the corner. If he is not allowed to call on you at your house,
there must be some fault with him,
which you have not the sense to see.
Your parents advice should be considered. They are the best judges, when your welfare is at stake.

No honest man will persuade a girl to do a rash act against the will of her parents. The rude man cares not whom he offends.

Bride.—Yes, it is an old proverb that
"a son is a son until he gets a wife, but a daughter is a daughter all the days of her life." A good daughter is the steady light of her parents' house.

The first duty of a loving child is to be obedient to his or her mother, the one who is always the first to rejoice in our joy and weep when we weep. Some people think of the welfare of every one and never give their own parts a kind thought.

There is no genius of life like the genius of energy and industry.

Ned.—You must not be so easy discouraged. Nothing that is of real worth can be achieved without courageous working. Man owes his luck chiefly to that active striving of the will. Courage, like cowardice, is undoubtedly contagious, but some persons are not at all liable to catch it.

Go to 205 O street, n. w., for a bottle of the best hair tonic on the market.
It promotes the growth and cleans the scalp as well as strengthens the roots.

Etta.—It is very dishonorable to accent the attention of a young man and allow him to believe that you would marry him, when you have given another your word. Matrimony is a very delicate business and should be looked upon from a more serious standpoint.

Fashion—Blue will be the leading color this Spring. Skirts are narrower and sleeves gradually diminishing.

The most handsome dresses have holed jackets or aton effect. Elaborate tailor made dresses are seen in all the large stores.

Cream of lilies is just what you need to remove all the freckles and roughness of the skin; price 25 and 50 cents, 205 O street, n. w.

Z. B.—An ill-mated human pair is the most woeful picture of human wretchedness that is presented to the book of life. A true marriage is the soul's Eden. It is the grand social institution of humanity.

A. C.—I believe in married men and women in their places. Girls cannot expect to be highly entertained by young gentlemen, if they keep the company of married men. We must first respect ourselves if we want others to respect us.

Rachael—Grass widows should live a more secluded life. It may have been his fault before, but you must be careful so as to prove it.

In the true wife, the husband finds not only affection, but companionship.
One to whom he can tell all of his business, be it good or bad. Man as well as woman needs some one in whom

EDITORIAL SYNOPSIS.

Our attention was called to an article in the Star and Times of March 22 and 23. The synopsis of the article was that the complete roll of 33° Masons of this country were located at E and 3d streets, n. w., so far as our Council is concerned, we know no one of the said name, and while we have the greatest respect in the world for the Pike Faction, we would suggest in the future "that complete roll under our obedience" be inserted instead of complete roll of 33° Masons. In the United States a poor man has as much right to be a Mason as a rich man; furthermore, there are five factions of Scottish Rite Masons in the District of Columbia, three white, two black; each faction has a large number of 33° Masons on its rolls. In this great republic we are free and equal and no one set of men have exclusive jurisdiction over the United States outside of the proper Government officials. I was attracted further by an article in The Post of March 21, 1897, part 2, headed Voodooism or Magic. In the second column my attention was attracted by the description of the Tan or Egyptian Cross. The synopsis of the article is that the Mystic Tan was the signet of the living God, spoken of by John, on which were engraved the four Hebrew letters, composing the Holy Word. The most famous talisman of ancient days was the Seal of Solomon. This Ring said to be in possession of the Jewish King was famed for its sway over the various kinds of gnomes and demons, another well-known amulet was presented to a tilted lady by a Druze from Mount Lebanon, by a certain sign in the left corner it was found to be a Messianic. It was a green stone of pentagonal form; at the bottom of which was a fish in the center a Solomon's Seal. At the top the four Chaldaic letters, Jod, He, Van, He, all making the word Iah, the name of God. (He that smokes Spanish tobacco knows something.)
